

Indigenous Children's Literature and Art Workshop

Please join us on Wednesday, November 3, as featured artist, Karen Riley of the S.C.R.A.P. Gallery, along with RCOE Arts Administrator, Louisa Higgins present the children's book, We Are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom. During this one-hour session geared towards elementary teachers, we will do a close read of the book followed by a hands-on, collage art project utilizing recycled materials. There will also be extension activities presented that highlight relevant history and science concepts.

Wednesday, November 3, 2021

Location: Online Workshop

Registration Deadline: Thursday, October 14, 2021

Attendance Limit: 25

Time: 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Fee: $25.00 (Includes materials, which will be mailed to participants.)

Make payment payable to: Riverside County Office of Education

Mail to: Riverside County Office of Education

Attn: Louisa Higgins

P.O. Box 868

Riverside, CA 92502-0868

Note: No refunds after deadline date. No refunds for no-show participants. All cancellations must be made in writing before the deadline date. Participants that are outside of Riverside County will be able to pay by credit card only. Please choose the Authorize.net payment option when registering.

Register today at

<http://rcoe.k12oms.org/485-210235>

The book is available at Amazon and from other booksellers. It has been summarized as follows:

We Are Water Protectors is a 2020 picture book written by Carole Lindstrom and illustrated by Michaela Goade. The book tells the story of an Ojibwe girl who fights against the Dakota Access Pipeline. The book won the Jane Addams Children's Book Award in the category Book for Younger Children and the Caldecott Medal for its illustrations.